

Into the Father's Hands
Luke 23:44-49, March 18, 2018
Pastor Nick Neves

How are we supposed to understand the death of God (Jesus) to even be possible?

(see Colossians 1:16-17, 1 Timothy 1:17)

As He who authored creation nears His death, the physical world responds in two phenomenal ways:

1. The sun's light _____

What is this darkness about?

Should we demand a logical, scientific explanation for every miracle Jesus works? What might that expectation say about our understanding of God's power and authority?

2. The veil in the temple was _____ in two

This thick, ornamental curtain hindered anyone from entering into the Holiest of Holies, a 30' by 30' room deep in the temple where the Ark of the Covenant was kept, and the very presence of God was understood to preside.

*_____ prevented men from entering into the Holiest of Holies.

What did the rending of this curtain mean in light of Jesus' death?

What is significant about the way that Jesus' life comes to an end?

Verses 47-49 contain three eye-witness reactions to the death of the Son:

The _____ Witness:

The _____ that had gathered:

Those who _____ Christ:
