

Prayer Guide for While We Can't Meet in Person

In Matthew 21:13, Jesus quotes a prophesy from Isaiah who rebukes the people because they were operating in a way not intended and that God's "house" will be called a house of prayer. Even though we are being prevented from assembling, we are still the house of God (1 Peter 2:5), and we may still pray. We hope that praying for the same things, and if possible, at the same time, will help to foster a sense of unity among us.

Print this out and put it on your fridge or some other high traffic area or put the times of praying in your phone as alarms.

General prayer points for this season:

- Pray for repentance for the church from shallow worship and spiritual minimalism.
- Pray that the Lord will use the coronavirus outbreak for His glory and for the spread of the gospel;
- Pray that God will mercifully bring the suffering and economic devastation caused by the reaction to this virus to an end;
- Pray that the Lord will allow our family and congregation to remain healthy;
- Pray that those in the congregation who are suffering financially as a result of the outbreak will find relief.
- Pray that we will be able to gather together soon, and that our hearts will develop a greater longing to be with each other from this.
- Pray for strength for our congregation that we may use this time to grow through personal devotions and study.
