

Witnesses to the Resurrection
1 Corinthians 15:3-11

In chapter 15, the Apostle presents the _____ of the gospel: Christ died for our sins, He was buried, and He rose on the third day.

But Paul also offers two important validations for that same gospel:

A. All of this happened ‘in accordance with the _____,’

_____
_____

(consider Psalm 16:9-10, Hosea 6:2, Isaiah 53, esp. vs. 5)

B. All of this has been verified by multiple _____

Why do these testimonies matter to Paul’s defense of the resurrection?

Why is it significant that Paul can site multiple witnesses?

1. Jesus appeared to _____

2. Jesus appeared to the _____

3. Jesus appeared to over _____ brethren at one time

4. Jesus appeared to _____

5. Jesus appeared to all the _____

The sixth and final party to whom Jesus revealed Himself merits special consideration.

Lastly, Jesus appeared to _____ himself.

In what ways, according to Paul, does his own testimony to the resurrection carry the LEAST amount of weight?

_____
_____

What does the term ‘one untimely born’ mean?

In what ways does the testimony of Paul carry the MOST amount of weight?

_____

Personal Application: Having not seen the resurrected Jesus with our own eyes, to what degree might a believer today bear testimony to the resurrection of the Son of God?
